and history of a man wanted by the Police of the Mysore District, for offences under Sections 328—379 of the Indian Penal Code (Mysore Taluk Crime No. 3—64 of 1892). Warrant issued by the Amildar and 2nd Class Magistrate, Mysore Taluk.

Name.—Sheshaiya. Father's name.—Subbanna. Caste.—Brahmin. Age.—63 years. Height.—5'—3½". Complexion.—Fair. Taluk.—Goribidnur, Kolar District. Village.—Dodda Turugode. Language.—Kanarese. Marks of identification.—A scar near the left ear. 2 scars on the breast and a big mole on the belly. Profession.—Formerly Shanbhog of Kunigal, Tumkur District.

In November 1885 this Sheshaiya with a friend of his named Komti Ramachandraiya of Kunigal went to Koratagere, Tumkur District, and purchased for credit some cloths from one Saravana Mudaliar and his son Muttu Mudaliar saying that they were also trading in cloths in the village of Tengode, and gaining familiarity with Saravana Mudaliar and his son, mixed some stupefying drug in their food, which rendered them senseless, and disappeared, with all the cloths the merchants had with them. They were duly arrested and placed before Mr. Krishnajiengar, General Assistant Commissioner and 1st Class Magistrate, Tumkur District, who committed them to the Court of Session, Nundydroog Division on charges under Sections 417—328 and 379, Indian Penal Code, where they were convicted and sentenced to suffer 6 years' rigorous imprisonment each.

2. Sheshaiya after his release from the Mysore Jail, on the 18th November 1891, proceeded to Huliurdurga, Kunigal Taluk, and put up in Hanumanta Chetti's Chattram. He contracted friendship with a Bestar woman named Kempri and remained there for a time, A Vaishnama (Satani) named Gunda of Anatiballi subsequently became his intimate friend.

3. In the beginning of November 1892 Sheshaiya and Gunda went together to Ramanathapur Jatra, Arkalgud Taluk, Hassan District. Here they hired a cart to go to Mysore, Gunda pretending to be the servant of Sheshaiya whom he represented to be a Parpattegar of Mysore. One Mallanna of Dalegaudanhalli, Holé-Narsipur Taluk, drove the cart, and on the way to Mysore they halted at Gungaraj Chattr, Mysore Taluk, and prepared their meals.

Mallanna was induced by the travellers to cook food for himself and they gave him some ghee and other condiments, which he used, and after partaking of the food he became senseless, which was evidently due to the administration of some stupefying drug in the articles supplied to him.

Sheshaiya and Gunda disappeared with the cart and bullocks and when Mallanna slightly recovered his senses he found himself lying on the roadside near Mandya Koppal, Seringapatam Taluk.

The cart and bullocks were traced in the possession of some persons at Huliurdurga, Kunigal Taluk, and at Subbrayan cattle fair, Doddballapur Taluk, respectively.

These persons implicated Sheshaiya and Gunda, the latter of whom was arrested at Hemigribetta near Huliurdurga. On search of Sheshaiya's house in Huliurdurga, a tin box was found which contained a pill composed of camphor in quantities sufficient to cause insensibility.

Gunda was charged under Sections 328 and 379, Indian Penal Code, before the Amildar and 2nd Class Magistrate of Mysore Taluk, who committed him for trial, in the Court of Session. The Sessions Judge, Ashtagram Division, convicted and sentenced him to 3 years' rigorous imprisonment.

The 1st accused Sheshaiya is still at large and a reward of Rs. 50 is offered for his arrest.
